

SOPHISM

Meaning: Sophism: a deceptive or fallacious argument, often used to mislead or manipulate opinion.

1. The politician's argument was dismissed as a mere sophism, designed to mislead the public.
2. In his debate, he employed a clever sophism that left his opponent momentarily speechless.
3. Philosophers often warn against falling for sophism, which can masquerade as sound reasoning.
4. The teacher explained that sophism can be persuasive, but it lacks true logical validity.
5. Her use of sophism in the essay highlighted her ability to manipulate language for effect.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sophism>