

SOPOR

Meaning: SOPOR: a state of deep sleep or drowsiness, often induced by soothing or calming influences.

1. The gentle rhythm of the waves created a sopor that lulled her into a peaceful slumber.
2. After a long day of hiking, the warmth of the fireplace wrapped him in a sopor that felt almost dreamlike.
3. As the lecture dragged on, a sopor settled over the students, making it hard for them to stay awake.
4. The soft lullaby of the forest at night enveloped her in a sopor that drew her further into her dreams.
5. In the dimly lit room, the combination of the warm tea and the quiet atmosphere induced a sopor that was irresistible.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sopor>