

SORBITION

Meaning: Sorbition is the process by which one substance becomes attached to another, particularly in the context of environmental science involving the interactions of soil and water and the removal of pollutants.

1. Sorbition is a crucial process in environmental science, particularly in understanding soil and water interactions.
2. The effectiveness of certain materials in sorbition can significantly influence pollutant removal during wastewater treatment.
3. Researchers are exploring new sorbition techniques to enhance the capture of carbon dioxide from the atmosphere.
4. The rate of sorbition can vary based on the temperature and concentration of the solution involved.
5. In many industrial applications, sorbition is key to achieving desired product purity and consistency.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sorbition>