SOUNDLESS

Meaning: Soundless: incapable of producing or being heard; silent.

1. The soundless night was pierced only by the distant rustle of leaves.
2. She felt a soundless ache in her heart as she watched the sunset.
3. In the soundless library, even the turning of a page felt like a disturbance.
4. The cat moved soundlessly across the room, its paws barely touching the floor.
5. He stood at the edge of the soundless ocean, lost in his thoughts.
6. The soundless night was pierced only by the rustling of leaves in the gentle breeze.
7. He moved through the soundless library, careful not to disturb the peaceful atmosphere.
8. As she gazed at the vast ocean, the soundless waves lapped quietly against the shore.
9. In the soundless depths of the forest, time seemed to stand still, wrapped in tranquility.
10. The soundless film captivated the audience, relying solely on visuals to convey its powerful story.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/soundless