

SOUNDNESS

Meaning: Soundness refers to the quality of being logically valid, reliable, or free from defects, ensuring both correctness in reasoning and integrity in physical materials.

1. The soundness of the argument was questioned by several experts in the field.
2. Her rigorous testing ensured the soundness of the materials used in the construction.
3. To determine the soundness of the financial plan, they conducted a thorough review.
4. The soundness of his reasoning made it difficult for others to refute his claims.
5. She emphasized the importance of soundness in both theory and practice during her lecture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/soundness>