

SOWER

Meaning: SOWER: a person who scatters seeds for planting in soil.

1. The sower walked through the fields, scattering seeds into the fertile soil.
2. In the early morning light, the sower diligently planted each seed with care.
3. The sower's hands were calloused from years of labor, yet he smiled at the promise of a bountiful harvest.
4. As the sower moved along the rows, a gentle breeze carried the scent of fresh earth.
5. Each spring, the town celebrated the return of the sower, marking the beginning of the planting season.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sower>