

SPALL

Meaning: Spall (noun): a fragment or piece that has broken off from a larger structure, typically due to wear, weathering, or impact.

1. The construction crew had to clear the area after spalls from the old concrete began to fall.
2. During the storm, spalls of ice broke off from the roof and landed dangerously close to the sidewalk.
3. As the artist chipped away at the stone, small spalls flew off, revealing the intricate patterns underneath.
4. The geologist examined the rock face, noting that the spall was a sign of erosion over many years.
5. When the metal began to corrode, it resulted in spalls that compromised the integrity of the structure.
6. The construction workers had to replace the spalled concrete to ensure the safety of the building.
7. During the storm, several spalls broke off from the old stone wall, scattering debris across the garden.
8. The artist skillfully incorporated spalls of paint into her mural, adding texture and depth to the composition.
9. After years of weathering, the ancient sculpture showed signs of spalling that needed urgent restoration.
10. The technician noted that the spalls on the metal surface indicated a potential failure in the coating system.
11. The mason carefully removed the spall from the edge of the stone to ensure a smooth finish.
12. During the storm, large spalls of rock fell from the cliffs, posing a danger to hikers below.
13. The artist incorporated spalls of color into her painting to create a sense of movement and energy.
14. After the explosion, the factory walls were left with spalls that revealed the underlying structure.
15. He noticed a spall on the pavement that could easily trip an unsuspecting passerby.

16. The construction workers noticed several spall chips falling from the concrete after the heavy rain.
17. As the stone aged, it began to spall, revealing layers of different colors beneath its surface.
18. He carefully collected the spall from the wall to analyze the composition of the ancient masonry.
19. The artist used spall from the quarry to create a unique texture in her sculpture.
20. After the earthquake, the old building showed significant spall, indicating structural damage that needed urgent repair.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spall>