

SPANG

Meaning: Spang (verb): to make a sharp, ringing sound, typically associated with metal striking metal or producing a bright flash, as in fireworks.

1. The sound of metal spanging against metal echoed through the workshop.
 2. As the fireworks exploded in the night sky, they spanged brightly, captivating everyone below.
 3. She accidentally let the door slam shut, causing it to spang loudly against the wall.
 4. The old bicycle made a spang as the chain slipped off the gears during the ride.
 5. He felt a rush of excitement as the coins spanged into the metal tray at the arcade machine.
 6. The sound of the metal sign spang against the pavement echoed through the quiet street.
 7. As the fireworks exploded in the night sky, they spang like tiny stars bursting into light.
 8. With a quick flick of his wrist, the coin spang off the table and landed perfectly in the cup.
 9. The children laughed as the frisbee spang off the tree and flew back toward them.
 10. During the game, the ball spang off the post, leading to a surprising turn of events.
 11. The metal sign made a sharp spang as it fell to the ground.
 12. She could hear the spang of the hammer hitting the metal as the blacksmith worked.
 13. After the fireworks went off, a sudden spang of color lit up the night sky.
 14. With a loud spang, the door swung open, revealing a dusty old room.
 15. The kid's bicycle made a spang sound as it hit the curb unexpectedly.
 16. The sound of the metal hitting the ground made a loud spang that echoed through the empty alley.
 17. As the door swung open, it made a sharp spang that startled everyone in the room.
 18. He felt a sudden spang of excitement as he crossed the finish line first.
 19. The children laughed as the marbles went spang against each other on the hardwood floor.
 20. With a spang and a flash, the fireworks lit up the night sky, captivating everyone below.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spang>