

SPANK

Meaning: Spank: to strike a person, especially a child, on the buttocks as a form of punishment or discipline.

1. The teacher decided to spank the unruly student as a last resort.
2. Many parents today choose to discipline their children without resorting to spanking.
3. He felt a moment of guilt after spanking his child for misbehavior.
4. The debate over the effectiveness of spanking as a form of discipline continues.
5. In some cultures, spanking is seen as a traditional method of child-rearing.
6. She gave her son a light spank on the bottom to get his attention.
7. The teacher decided to spank the misbehaving student, but only after much deliberation.
8. Having grown up in a strict household, he often joked about his childhood spankings.
9. The debate over whether to spank children has been a controversial topic among parents.
10. After a playful argument, they ended up giving each other a friendly spank as a gesture of reconciliation.
11. The parent decided to spank their child as a form of discipline.
12. In some cultures, it is common for children to receive a spank when they misbehave.
13. She felt a strong urge to spank the playful puppy for chewing on her shoes.
14. The teacher warned the students that a spank might be the consequence of their disruptive behavior.
15. He recalled his childhood memories of being spanked and how it shaped his understanding of right and wrong.