

SPARK

Meaning: Spark: a small, bright flash of light or a trace of energy that initiates a reaction or feeling.

1. A small spark ignited the dry leaves, quickly turning into a roaring fire.
2. Her eyes sparkled with excitement as she opened the gift.
3. The debate between the two candidates sparked a lively discussion among the audience.
4. He felt a spark of inspiration that led him to write his first novel.
5. The spark of friendship between them grew stronger with each passing day.
6. The child's laughter seemed to spark joy in everyone around her.
7. An idea can often spark a revolution when shared with the right audience.
8. The campfire flickered, sending a spark into the night sky.
9. Her passion for painting sparked a new interest in the local art community.
10. A single comment can spark a heated debate among friends.
11. The spark of creativity ignited within her as she began to paint.
12. He struck the match, and a small spark quickly turned into a roaring fire.
13. Their discussion about philosophy sparked a lively debate among the students.
14. The child's laughter was like a spark of joy in the dull afternoon.
15. She felt a spark of attraction the moment she met him at the café.
16. The sudden spark of inspiration led her to create a masterpiece.
17. He watched as the spark from the campfire danced into the night sky.
18. The athlete's determination lit a spark in his teammates, motivating them to push harder.
19. She felt a spark of excitement as she opened the letter that changed her life.
20. After troubleshooting for hours, he finally found the spark that ignited the engine.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spark>