

SPAT

Meaning: A spat is a brief, petty argument or disagreement.

1. The siblings had a petty spat over who would control the TV remote.
2. After their spat, they quickly made up and laughed about the misunderstanding.
3. A small spat between the two friends escalated into a major argument.
4. She tried to mediate the spat, but both parties were too stubborn to back down.
5. Their spat was quickly forgotten when they realized how trivial it was in the grand scheme of things.
6. The children had a small spat over who would get to play with the toy first.
7. After a brief spat, they quickly made up and resumed their conversation.
8. Their spat escalated into a heated argument that drew everyone's attention.
9. She tried to ignore the spat between her friends, focusing instead on the movie.
10. It was just a spat, but it reminded them how easily misunderstandings can occur.
11. The couple had a minor spat over what to watch on television.
12. Her spat with her colleague made the workplace atmosphere quite tense.
13. He couldn't believe they were still arguing about the spat from last week.
14. The children had a spat over the last piece of cake at the party.
15. The couple had a small spat over who would do the dishes.
16. After the spat, they both realized it was a silly argument and made up quickly.
17. Their spat during the meeting caught everyone's attention and led to an awkward silence.
18. She tried to ignore the spat between her friends, not wanting to take sides.
19. Despite their spat, they continued to work together effectively on the project.
20. The couple had a minor spat over what to eat for dinner.
21. After their spat, they both realized how silly the argument had been.
22. The children often engaged in playful spats that quickly resolved themselves.

23. His spat with his colleague over project details led to an awkward meeting.
 24. Despite their recent spat, they managed to maintain a professional relationship.
 25. They had a minor spat over who would do the dishes.
 26. After their spat, they both realized how trivial the argument had been.
 27. The couple's spat quickly escalated into a loud disagreement.
 28. Despite their spat, they made up before the night was over.
 29. His spat with the manager left him feeling frustrated and unheard.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spat>