

SPATHED

Meaning: Spathed (adjective): having a spathe, which is a large bract or leaf that encloses or subtends a flower or inflorescence, often seen in certain plants.

1. The spathed flower emerged from the soil, revealing its vibrant colors.
2. In botany, a spathed inflorescence can often indicate the onset of spring.
3. The gardener was thrilled to see that the spathed plant had survived the harsh winter.
4. During the nature walk, we learned how spathed species attract various pollinators.
5. The unique shape of the spathed bloom caught the attention of every passerby.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spathed>