

SPATTER-DOCK

Meaning: Spatter-dock is a type of aquatic plant, specifically a yellow-flowered species of water lily (Nuphar spp.), that thrives in wetlands and provides habitat and food for various wildlife.

1. The spatter-dock blooms attract a variety of pollinators during the summer months.
2. In the wetlands, the spatter-dock creates a habitat for numerous aquatic species.
3. She admired the vibrant yellow flowers of the spatter-dock as they floated on the water's surface.
4. Spatter-dock is often mistaken for other aquatic plants due to its distinctive leaves.
5. The local guide explained how spatter-dock is an essential part of the ecosystem's balance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spatter-dock>