

SPATTER

Meaning: Spatter: to scatter or splash liquid or small particles in irregular drops or spots.

1. The paint began to spatter across the canvas in chaotic bursts of color.
2. During the storm, rain would spatter against the windows, creating a soothing sound.
3. As she walked through the puddles, water would spatter onto her shoes and pants.
4. The chef warned that if you don't be careful, the oil will spatter when it heats up.
5. He watched in horror as the mud began to spatter on his freshly cleaned car.
6. The artist decided to spatter paint across the canvas for a more dynamic effect.
7. Rain began to spatter against the window, creating a soothing rhythm.
8. During the car wash, soap suds spattered everywhere, leaving the ground slippery.
9. She accidentally spattered ink on her shirt while trying to refill her pen.
10. The children laughed as they spattered each other with water during the summer rain.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spatter>