

SPATTLE

Meaning: Spattle (verb): To splash or scatter liquid or small particles around in a messy or exuberant manner.

1. The dog began to spattle as it played in the muddy puddle.
2. In the kitchen, the chef's enthusiasm caused flour to spattle everywhere.
3. She watched in amusement as the children spattle during their water balloon fight.
4. The artist's brush would often spattle paint across the canvas in vibrant bursts.
5. As the car sped through the rain, the tires spattled water onto the sidewalk.
6. The child watched in fascination as the dog began to spattle water everywhere after jumping into the pond.
7. After the storm, the street was littered with leaves and spattle from the nearby trees.
8. He had a tendency to spattle his words when he got excited, making it hard for others to understand him.
9. The artist used a technique that involved spattle to create a unique texture in his painting.
10. As the chef mixed the ingredients, a few drops of sauce spattled onto the counter, creating a messy but delicious scene.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spattle>