

SPAULD

Meaning: To spauld (verb) means to hit or strike a ball forcefully, often resulting in it traveling quickly and accurately.

1. He decided to spauld the ball with a powerful swing.
2. During the game, he managed to spauld it right past the defender.
3. She practiced her technique to ensure she could spauld the frisbee accurately.
4. They watched in awe as he could spauld the tennis ball with incredible speed.
5. The coach encouraged the team to spauld the soccer ball with precision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spauld>