

SPAW

Meaning: SPAW (verb): To splash or scatter a substance, especially colors or light, across a surface in a lively or expressive manner.

1. The artist decided to spawe the canvas with vibrant colors to capture the essence of spring.
2. As the sun set, the sky began to spawe with shades of orange and pink, creating a breathtaking view.
3. During the ceremony, the performers spawe their talents, leaving the audience in awe.
4. The garden was designed to spawe with blooming flowers throughout the year, ensuring a continuous display of beauty.
5. Inspired by nature, the architect aimed to spawe the building with natural light and open spaces.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spaw>