

SPAY

Meaning: To spay is to surgically remove the ovaries and usually the uterus of a female animal to prevent reproduction.

1. Many pet owners choose to spay their cats to prevent unwanted litters.
2. The veterinarian explained that spaying can help reduce the risk of certain health issues in female dogs.
3. It's important to spay your pet to contribute to the fight against animal overpopulation.
4. After deciding to spay her puppy, she felt relieved knowing she was making a responsible choice.
5. Community programs often provide low-cost spay and neuter services to encourage pet owners to participate.
6. Many animal shelters encourage pet owners to spay their female dogs to prevent unwanted litters.
7. Spaying is a common procedure that can help reduce the risk of certain health issues in cats.
8. After adopting her kitten, she decided to spay her to ensure a long and healthy life.
9. The veterinarian explained the importance of spaying to the new pet owner during their visit.
10. By choosing to spay her pet, she contributed to controlling the local stray animal population.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spay>