

SPECIFICATION

Meaning: Specification: a detailed description or requirement outlining the standards and criteria for a project or product.

1. The engineer reviewed the project specification to ensure all requirements were met.
2. Her attention to detail is evident in the meticulous specification document she created.
3. Before manufacturing begins, we need to finalize the product specification to avoid any misunderstandings.
4. The software's performance exceeded the initial specification, leading to rave reviews from users.
5. It's crucial to clarify any ambiguities in the specification to prevent delays in the development process.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/specification>