

SPECTATOR

Meaning: Spectator: a person who watches an event, performance, or exhibition without participating.

1. The stadium was filled with enthusiastic spectators cheering for their favorite team.
2. As a spectator at the art exhibit, I was captivated by the creativity on display.
3. The concert drew a large crowd, with spectators eagerly waiting for the band to take the stage.
4. She felt a sense of camaraderie with the other spectators watching the parade together.
5. Every spectator in the audience held their breath in anticipation of the final performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spectator>