

SPECTATORIAL

Meaning: SPECTATORIAL: Relating to or characterized by the experience or role of a spectator, particularly in engaging with art or events.

1. The artist's latest installation invites a spectatorial experience that challenges traditional boundaries between viewer and artwork.
2. In the realm of sports, the spectatorial atmosphere can significantly enhance the excitement of the game.
3. Her play was filled with spectatorial moments that captivated the audience and left them wanting more.
4. The film's director aimed to create a spectatorial journey that would draw viewers into the narrative.
5. With its immersive design, the exhibit transformed mundane objects into a spectatorial celebration of everyday life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spectatorial>