

SPED

Meaning: SPED (verb): the past tense of "speed," meaning to move quickly or to travel at a high rate of speed.

1. She sped down the highway, eager to reach her destination before sunset.
2. The car sped past us, creating a gust of wind that made us shiver.
3. In her excitement, she sped through her presentation, leaving some important details out.
4. He sped up his pace, determined to catch the bus before it left the stop.
5. The athlete sped ahead of his competitors, securing first place in the race.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sped>