

SPEER

Meaning: To ask or inquire; to look or gaze intently.

1. She decided to spear a question to the panel about their future plans.
2. As the sun set, he would often spear into the distance, lost in thought.
3. The artist chose to spear her creativity into a new project that excited her.
4. During the meeting, she felt it was necessary to spear her concerns about the budget.
5. He could hear the faint sound of laughter as he tried to spear through the crowd.
6. The researcher used a powerful telescope to spear into the depths of the galaxy.
7. As the sun began to set, the children would often spear out at the horizon, hoping to catch a glimpse of the elusive green flash.
8. With a sharp spear, the archer launched his arrow straight towards the target.
9. The artist aimed to spear the viewer's emotions through her vivid brushstrokes.
10. She had a knack for speering the truth from even the most complex situations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/speer>