

SPEIR

Meaning: 'SPEIR' refers to the action of rising or extending upward sharply, often resembling a pointed shape or motion.

1. The ancient castle stood atop the hill, its towers speiring into the sky.
2. As the athlete sprinted forward, his spikes dug into the track, speiring him ahead of the competition.
3. The artist's brush danced across the canvas, creating lines that seemed to spear through the vibrant colors.
4. During the storm, lightning struck the tree, speiring it with a brilliant flash of light.
5. In the documentary, the filmmaker captured the moment a hawk speired its prey with precision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/speir>