

SPELK

*Meaning: SPELK (verb): To spell out or articulate words or names, often for the purpose of practice or competition.*

1. The teacher asked the students to spelk the difficult words to improve their spelling skills.
2. During the game, the children had to spelk the names of various animals to earn points.
3. To enhance her vocabulary, she practiced spelking out new words every day.
4. He struggled to spelk the technical terms correctly during the presentation.
5. Spelking aloud helped him remember the pronunciation of challenging words.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spelk>