

SPELLBIND

Meaning: To spellbind means to captivate or enchant someone completely, holding their attention in a mesmerizing way.

1. The magician's performance was so captivating that it seemed to spellbind the entire audience.
2. Her storytelling ability could effortlessly spellbind children and adults alike.
3. The beauty of the sunset over the ocean was enough to spellbind anyone who witnessed it.
4. As he read the poem aloud, his voice seemed to spellbind everyone in the room.
5. The intricate details of the painting spellbind viewers, drawing them into its vibrant world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spellbind>