

SPELLBOUND

Meaning: Spellbound: captivated or entranced, as if by magic, often resulting in a state of rapt attention.

1. The audience was spellbound as the magician performed his final trick.
2. She listened to the story with such intensity that she felt completely spellbound.
3. The breathtaking view from the mountaintop left him spellbound for several moments.
4. As the music played, the dancers captivated the crowd, leaving everyone spellbound.
5. The intricate details of the painting left her spellbound, unable to look away.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spellbound>