

SPELLER

Meaning: A speller is a person who spells words, especially in a competitive or educational context.

1. The young boy was a talented speller, impressing his classmates with his ability to tackle difficult words.
2. During the spelling bee, the judges praised the speller for her poise and confidence on stage.
3. As a teacher, she often encouraged her students to become better spellers by practicing daily.
4. The speller received a trophy for winning first place in the regional competition.
5. Despite being a poor speller, he always tried his best in writing assignments.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/speller>