

SPERMATOGENESIS

Meaning: Spermatogenesis is the biological process of producing sperm cells from primordial germ cells in the male reproductive system through division and differentiation.

1. Spermatogenesis is the biological process through which sperm cells are produced in the male reproductive system.
2. During spermatogenesis, primordial germ cells undergo several stages of division and differentiation.
3. The efficiency of spermatogenesis can be influenced by various factors, including hormonal levels and environmental conditions.
4. Research on spermatogenesis has significant implications for understanding male fertility and reproductive health.
5. Disruptions in spermatogenesis can lead to conditions such as oligospermia or azoospermia, affecting a man's ability to conceive.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spermatogenesis>