

SPEW

Meaning: SPEW: to discharge or emit a substance forcefully and in large quantities; to express thoughts or words in a rapid and often chaotic manner.

1. The volcano began to spew ash and lava, creating a dramatic landscape.
2. After the party, he would often spew incoherent thoughts that made little sense.
3. The fountain in the park would spew water high into the air, delighting the children.
4. In a fit of rage, she started to spew insults that hurt everyone around her.
5. The geyser is known to spew boiling water at regular intervals, attracting many visitors.
6. The volcano began to spew molten lava, creating a breathtaking but dangerous spectacle.
7. During the meeting, he started to spew complaints about the new policy, much to everyone's annoyance.
8. As the car accelerated, the exhaust began to spew black smoke into the air.
9. After the roller coaster ride, she couldn't help but spew a mix of excitement and fear in her recounting of the experience.
10. The storm caused the river to overflow, causing it to spew debris and mud onto the roads.
11. The volcano began to spew molten lava, creating a breathtaking yet terrifying spectacle.
12. During the heated argument, he couldn't help but spew a torrent of insults that hurt her feelings.
13. As the geyser erupted, it would spew water high into the air, delighting the onlookers.
14. The old car would often spew black smoke, indicating it needed some serious repairs.
15. In his frustration, he began to spew forth a series of wild conspiracy theories that left everyone bewildered.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spew>