

SPIKE

Meaning: A spike is a sudden, sharp increase or rise in a quantity or intensity, often referring to measurements like temperature or sensations like pain.

1. The sudden spike in temperatures caught everyone off guard.
2. He felt a sharp spike of pain shoot through his leg as he twisted his ankle.
3. The stock market saw a significant spike after the announcement of the new policy.
4. Her interest in the project saw a spike when she learned about the potential funding.
5. As the concert began, the crowd experienced a spike in energy and excitement.
6. The athlete felt a surge of adrenaline as he prepared to spike the volleyball over the net.
7. The sudden spike in temperatures caught everyone off guard, leading to an unexpected heatwave.
8. She decided to spike the punch at the party, adding a splash of rum for an extra kick.
9. The stock market experienced a dramatic spike in prices after the announcement of the new policy.
10. His enthusiasm for the project seemed to spike after he received positive feedback from his peers.
11. The athlete experienced a sudden spike in his performance during the final match.
12. As the storm approached, there was a noticeable spike in the barometric pressure.
13. The graph showed a dramatic spike in sales after the launch of the new product.
14. She felt a spike of excitement when she received the job offer.
15. The doctor noted a spike in the patient's temperature, indicating a possible infection.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spike>