

SPIKED

Meaning: 'SPIKED' refers to a sudden increase or rise in intensity or level, or to have been secretly added to something, often with an illicit substance.

1. The athlete's performance spiked dramatically after months of rigorous training.
2. She noticed that her coffee had been spiked with something unusual at the party.
3. Interest in the new technology spiked as news of its potential spread online.
4. The stock prices spiked unexpectedly after the company's successful product launch.
5. His adrenaline spiked when he heard the loud crash outside his window.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spiked>