

SPILL

Meaning: SPILL (verb): to accidentally cause a liquid to flow over the edge of a container or surface.

1. She accidentally spilled her coffee all over the table.
2. The child was upset after he spilled juice on his favorite shirt.
3. During the storm, the rain began to spill into the basement through the cracks.
4. He tried to carry too many books at once, causing a few to spill onto the floor.
5. The artist decided to embrace the spill of paint as part of her creative process.
6. She accidentally spilled coffee on her favorite shirt.
7. The toddler made a mess when he spilled his juice all over the floor.
8. During the storm, the heavy rain caused the river to spill over its banks.
9. He tried to clean up the spill in the kitchen before anyone noticed.
10. The workers were careful not to spill any paint while renovating the room.
11. She accidentally spilled coffee on her shirt while rushing to the meeting.
12. The toddler was so excited that he spilled his juice all over the table.
13. After the storm, the river began to spill over its banks, flooding the nearby fields.
14. He tried to contain his emotions, but the news made him spill his feelings to his friend.
15. The mechanic warned that a small leak could eventually spill oil all over the driveway.
16. I accidentally spilled coffee on my shirt during the meeting.
17. The heavy rain caused the river to spill over its banks.
18. She tried to conceal her excitement, but a smile began to spill across her face.
19. After the accident, there was a dangerous spill of chemicals on the road.
20. He couldn't help but spill the beans about the surprise party.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spill>