

SPINDLING

Meaning: Spindling refers to something that is slender, long, and often fragile in appearance.

1. The spindling branches of the tree reached toward the sky, creating a delicate silhouette.
2. She admired the spindling figure of the dancer as she moved gracefully across the stage.
3. The old fence was made of spindling wood, each post leaning slightly to one side.
4. In the garden, the spindling vines wrapped around the trellis, promising an abundance of grapes.
5. His spindling frame made him appear fragile, but he was surprisingly strong and agile.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spindling>