

SPINEBACK

Meaning: Spineback refers to a type of lizard characterized by a distinctive dorsal ridge or spines, often adapted to rocky habitats.

1. The spineback exhibits a unique structure that allows it to thrive in rocky terrains.
2. During the hike, we encountered a rare spineback lizard basking in the sun.
3. Researchers have discovered that the spineback's robust features help it withstand harsh weather conditions.
4. In ancient cultures, the spineback was often revered for its strength and resilience.
5. The spineback's distinctive markings make it easily identifiable among other reptiles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spineback>