

SPIRACULAR

Meaning: Spiracular refers to openings or structures related to breathing, particularly in aquatic animals and insects, facilitating respiration.

1. The spiracular openings on the fish allow for efficient breathing while it swims.
2. Scientists studied the spiracular structures of various insects to understand their respiratory systems.
3. In the design of the new aquarium, spiracular features were incorporated to enhance water circulation.
4. The spiracular region of the organism is crucial for gas exchange in its aquatic environment.
5. Observing the spiracular anatomy of the species provided insights into its evolutionary adaptations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spiracular>