

SPITBALL

Meaning: A spitball is a small, wet ball of paper or similar material that is formed by chewing or moistening and is typically used as a projectile in playful or mischievous behavior.

1. The teacher caught a student launching a spitball across the classroom.
2. In a moment of childhood mischief, they decided to create spitballs and aim for the trash can.
3. During the lecture, a well-timed spitball caused a ripple of laughter among the classmates.
4. He expertly made a spitball from a piece of paper, ready to initiate a playful battle.
5. The principal frowned upon spitballs, declaring them a distraction in the learning environment.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spitball>