

SPITFIRE

Meaning: Spitfire (noun): a person, especially an older one, who is spirited, fiery, and fiercely independent.

1. The old man was a real spitfire, never backing down from a challenge despite his age.
2. During the debate, her spitfire personality shone through as she passionately defended her views.
3. The little girl was a spitfire, always full of energy and ready for adventure.
4. His spitfire attitude often led to heated arguments, but it also inspired those around him.
5. With her quick wit and fiery spirit, she was known as the office spitfire, brightening up the dullest days.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spitfire>