SPITSCOCKED

Meaning: Spitscocked refers to a style of construction or cooking where something is split open and flattened, allowing for even exposure or cooking.

1. The old barn had a spitscocked roof that added character to the rustic landscape.
2. As the chef prepared the meal, he chose to use a spitscocked method for even cooking.
3. They admired the spitscocked design of the building, which showcased unique architectural styles.
4. The spitscocked arrangement of the logs created a sturdy and visually appealing cabin.
5. During the festival, they demonstrated how to properly cook a chicken in a spitscocked style.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spitscocked