

SPITTER

Meaning: SPITTER: A noun referring to something or someone that sprays or ejects liquid, particularly in a playful or skillful manner, such as a dog splashing water or a pitcher using a deceptive grip in baseball.

1. The child giggled as the dog playfully became a spitter, spraying water everywhere.
2. During the baseball game, the pitcher was known as a spitter for his clever use of a slippery grip.
3. With a sigh of frustration, she wiped the spitter's droplets from her face after the splash fight.
4. As the crowd cheered, the spitter on the team delivered a perfect curveball, leaving the batter stunned.
5. In the rainy weather, the spitter was the only one left laughing as he splashed through puddles.
6. The child was reprimanded for being a spitter during the school assembly.
7. In baseball, a spitter is a type of pitch that can confuse the batter if executed correctly.
8. After the heated argument, she walked away, muttering like a spitter in frustration.
9. The comedian's impressions of a spitter made the audience burst into laughter.
10. During the game, the pitcher was caught using a spitter, leading to his ejection from the match.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spitter>