

SPITTLE

Meaning: Spittle is a noun that refers to saliva or liquid that is ejected from the mouth, often in small droplets.

1. The child giggled as he watched the dog shake off spittle after drinking from the pond.
 2. During the heated argument, spittle flew from his lips, emphasizing his frustration.
 3. After the intense workout, I noticed spittle forming at the corners of her mouth.
 4. The comedian's exaggerated gestures sent spittle flying, much to the delight of the audience.
 5. She wiped the spittle from her chin, embarrassed by how animated she had become during the discussion.
 6. The child laughed so hard that spittle flew from his mouth.
 7. After the argument, he wiped the spittle from his chin in embarrassment.
 8. The dog eagerly waited for its owner, spittle forming at the corners of its mouth.
 9. She noticed the spittle on the table and quickly grabbed a napkin to clean it up.
 10. During the heated debate, the speaker's spittle was noticeable as he passionately made his point.
 11. The child laughed so hard that spittle flew from his lips.
 12. She wiped the spittle from her mouth after finishing the spicy dish.
 13. During the argument, he didn't notice the spittle gathering at the corners of his mouth.
 14. The athlete's intense effort left spittle on his chin as he crossed the finish line.
 15. The dog barked excitedly, sending spittle flying in all directions.
 16. He watched in disgust as the spittle flew from the speaker's mouth.
 17. The ground was slick with spittle after the intense debate among the animals.
 18. She wiped the spittle from her chin after laughing too hard at the joke.
 19. The dog shook its head, sending spittle flying across the room.
 20. In the heat of the argument, spittle sprayed from his lips with every harsh word.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spittle>