

SPLATTER

Meaning: SPLATTER (verb): to scatter or splash liquid or small particles in a messy or irregular manner.

1. The artist decided to splatter paint onto the canvas to create a vibrant, chaotic effect.
2. As the car drove over the puddle, water splattered onto the sidewalk, soaking the pedestrians.
3. During the cooking class, the chef warned us that oil might splatter when it heats up.
4. The children laughed as they watched the raindrops splatter against the window during the storm.
5. After the paintball game, his shirt was covered in colorful splatters from head to toe.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/splatter>