

SPLAY

Meaning: SPLAY (verb): to spread out or extend in an outward direction, often in a disorganized or expansive manner.

1. The artist chose to splay the colors across the canvas in a chaotic yet beautiful manner.
2. As the tree branches splayed outwards, they created a natural canopy over the picnic area.
3. When the gymnast landed, her legs splayed apart, showcasing her impressive balance.
4. The dog excitedly splayed its paws as it jumped into the pile of leaves.
5. She decided to splay the documents on the table for everyone to see clearly.
6. The cat lay sprawled on the floor, its paws splayed out in every direction.
7. The artist chose to splay the colors across the canvas, creating a vibrant and chaotic effect.
8. As the tree branches splayed outwards, they formed a natural canopy that provided shade.
9. During the yoga class, the instructor encouraged us to splay our fingers wide for better balance.
10. The dancer's movements caused her skirt to splay around her like petals in the wind.
11. The bird's wings splay out wide as it prepares to take flight.
12. He watched the leaves splay across the ground after the storm.
13. When the dog ran in excitement, its paws splayed in all directions.
14. The artist chose to splay the colors on the canvas for a vibrant effect.
15. As the dancer spun, her skirt splayed around her like a blooming flower.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/splay>