

SPLINT

Meaning: A splint is a rigid or supportive device used to immobilize and protect a broken or injured bone or joint.

1. The doctor carefully applied a splint to stabilize the fractured bone.
2. After the accident, they fashioned a makeshift splint from a stick and some cloth.
3. She wore a splint on her wrist to help recover from the injury sustained during the game.
4. In emergencies, knowing how to create a splint can be a vital skill.
5. The athlete was relieved to hear that he would only need a splint for a few weeks.
6. The doctor carefully applied a splint to the broken arm to ensure proper healing.
7. After the fall, she experienced severe pain and knew she needed a splint for her injured ankle.
8. In the wilderness, he used a sturdy stick as a splint to immobilize his friend's fractured leg.
9. The athlete was disappointed to learn that a splint would keep him off the field for several weeks.
10. To stabilize the injured finger, she fashioned a makeshift splint from cardboard and tape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/splint>