

SPLITTER

Meaning: A splitter is a device used to divide a signal into multiple outputs for distribution, such as in telecommunications or video connections.

1. The technician installed a splitter to distribute the internet signal throughout the building.
2. During the presentation, the speaker used a video splitter to connect multiple screens.
3. She found an audio splitter that allowed her to share music with her friends without losing sound quality.
4. The garden had a water splitter that efficiently divided the irrigation to different sections.
5. In electronics, a splitter can help manage multiple connections from a single source without any loss of performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/splitter>