

SPOILFUL

Meaning: SPOILFUL: characterized by a tendency to be pampered or indulged, often resulting in selfish or unruly behavior.

1. The spoilful nature of the child made it difficult for the parents to enforce any rules.
2. His spoilful attitude at the party alienated many of his friends and family.
3. Though the gift was meant to be a surprise, her spoilful reaction revealed her true feelings.
4. In a spoilful society, gratitude is often overlooked in favor of instant gratification.
5. Their spoilful behavior during the vacation created tension among the group of friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spoilful>