

SPOKESMAN

Meaning: A spokesman is a person who speaks on behalf of an organization or group, conveying information and announcements to the public or media.

1. The company's spokesman announced the new policy during a press conference.
2. After the incident, the spokesman provided updates to the concerned media outlets.
3. As the official spokesman for the organization, he spoke on behalf of the board members.
4. The spokesman emphasized the importance of community support in the upcoming project.
5. During the negotiations, the spokesman remained calm and collected despite the tensions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spokesman>