

SPONGER

Meaning: A sponger is a person who habitually relies on others for financial support or resources without contributing in return.

1. He was often seen as a sponger, living off his friends instead of finding a job.
2. Many people dismissed him as a sponger, but he was actually dealing with personal challenges.
3. The local community was frustrated with the sponger who constantly borrowed money without paying it back.
4. She had a reputation as a sponger, always inviting herself to dinner parties for free meals.
5. Despite being labeled a sponger, he had a knack for charming others into helping him out.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sponger>