

SPONK

Meaning: Sponk (verb): to bounce or propel an object, especially a ball, with force.

1. The children laughed as they watched the sponk bounce across the yard.
2. He decided to sponk the ball against the wall to test its durability.
3. After a few attempts, she managed to sponk the frisbee perfectly into the air.
4. During the game, his unexpected sponk surprised everyone and changed the momentum.
5. The sponk of the toy in the pool delighted the kids during their summer party.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sponk>