

SPOOR

Meaning: Spoor refers to the tracks or signs left by animals, particularly those indicating their passage or movement.

1. The hunter carefully examined the spoor left by the elusive deer.
2. After the heavy rain, the spoor became nearly impossible to track.
3. She followed the spoor, hoping it would lead her to the bear's den.
4. The biologist collected samples of the spoor to analyze the animal's diet.
5. Despite the fading light, they were determined to follow the fresh spoor.
6. The hunters followed the spoor of the deer through the dense underbrush.
7. After the rain, the spoor left by the rabbits was clearly visible on the muddy trail.
8. The biologist studied the spoor to understand the migration patterns of the local wildlife.
9. Using tracking skills, he was able to identify the type of animal from its spoor.
10. The spoor led them to a hidden den where the fox had been raising its young.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/spoor>